The D Day event was well received by everyone. Over 200 chip vouchers were issued and more than 200 quizzes and prizes. The Crack the Code competition book token was won by Austin Turner. Prize to be taken into school and given to Austin there. Grants received from North Lincolnshire Council and Tesco really helped to make the event the success it was and within budget.

Handyman has weeded the monument roundabout and is to trim and spray off the empty allotment plots. 4 empty allotment plots at the moment, so need to advertise.

Garden Competition advertised on Social Media, as well as in the Brigg Times. As with two previous years we are doing Photo entries, Judging after next meeting?? Entries by 19th July.

Steve Ball attending to remove broken The Angel tomorrow. The Market Place doors to library ad Atrium are remaining cordoned off until area can be considered safe.

2024/027 – No NLC Ward Councillors were present, so this item deferred to next meeting.
